

Secure Asset Transportation

Henderson Risk Limited plans and implements focused physical security operations to protect people and property against terrorism, kidnap, violent crime, theft and other threats relating to the client and the environment in which they are operating.

HRL runs security operations in diverse environments, including current- and post-conflict scenarios and threats of natural hazards or violence. All operations are intelligence-led and supported by regional and risk analysis from our Insight & Investigations division. HRL's flexible and innovative approach means we can deliver tangible results and value to our clients.

HRL's secure asset transportation solutions are carried out by highly trained staff working to rigorous operating procedures to deliver the optimum secure transportation solutions.

SERVICES

HRL provides all forms of asset transportation, including:

- Bank-to-branch cash-in-transit
- Secure convoy monitoring

These services can be carried out in HRL's own fleet of specialist armoured delivery vehicles which carry Lloyd's of London specie insurance or a client's own vehicles.

HRL complements all physical security solutions with:

- Global tracking systems monitored by our 24/7 multi-lingual monitoring and global tracking centre
- A quick response team immediately deployable to emergencies
- Comprehensive insurance

BENEFITS

- Bespoke solutions tailored for each client
- 24/7 response capability
- Fully trained and accredited personnel
